

TEMPUS

Young Social Entrepreneurs Conference

Conference Highlights

SESSION TOPICS

Girl Power: Women Trailblazers in Our Midst

Never Too Young: Entrepreneurs under 20

Social Entrepreneurship: What is Needed & How Can Entrepreneurs Solve Community Problems

Business Model Canvas: Learn How to Create Your Business Plan

Choose Your Own Adventure: For Profit, Benefit Corp, Non-Profit

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: JEN GROOVER

Jen Groover has been tagged by Success Magazine as a “One-Woman Brand,” a “Creativity and Innovation Guru” and a leading “Serial Entrepreneur” by Entrepreneur Magazine and ranked #8 by SAP in the Top 51 Influencers of Human Potential. She was recently nominated as a UN delegate to the first ever Global Accelerator for the Global Entrepreneurs Council. She also made Forbes’ list of “50 Founders You Need to Follow on Twitter” and was nominated “TV Personality of The Year Award” in 2013 by Savor the Success.

YOUTH PRESENTERS

AARON WRIGHT CEO of Quick Rocket. Aaron is 16-year-old entrepreneur, runs a six-figure marketing agency and is looking to establish a clothing line in the future.

ANJALI & DEEPAK KEJARIWAL Co-founders of Sweatshirts to Scrubs. Their mission is to provide motivated children with more information about health and medicine while simultaneously bridging the knowledge gap between children and careers in healthcare.

TO REGISTER:

CONTACT BOB STEININGER | 610-886-4904
 BSTEININGER@TRELLIS4TOMORROW.ORG
HTTPS://TRELLIS4TOMORROW.ORG/TEMPUS-CONFERENCE/

Montgomery County Community College is not affiliated with the event and the College should not be contacted regarding the program.